COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrapper and attach its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce being desirous of turning the search light of investigation upon the truth of his formulae, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrapper—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages, no medicine will do that yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hemorrhoids, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption. Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it the thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicine at reasonable prices.

ATTACKED BY CONVICTS.

Warden Frank Conley, of this Monticello penitentiary, was severely wounded yesterday and Deputy Warden John Robinson was killed by three life convicts, George Rock, W. H. Hayes, and another, who tried to escape prison.

Robinson's throat was cut from ear to ear and the jugular vein was severed.

Conley's throat was gashed and he was stabbed several times in the shoulder and groin before he was able to draw his revolver and shoot down Hayes and Rock, who were armed with pocketknives. It is believed that the warden will recover.

The three convicts were taken to the office of the penitentiary by Deputy Warden Robinson, to be tried before Warden Conley for an infraction of the prison rules.

Hayes for several months had been a "trusty," and served as turnkey. He had been placed in the same cell with Rock who had been regarded as a desperate man.

The moment the men entered the office Rock turned swiftly on Robinson, who was closing the door behind the men, and quickly drawing a knife, slashed the deputy warden's throat deeply, the warden fell helpless and soon died.

At the same moment that Rock attacked Robinson, Hayes drew a knife and started for Conley, who retreated to the rear of the office. Before he could draw a revolver, Hayes had sprung on the warden and slashed his throat from the left ear to a point under the chin. Conley half closed the blow and struggled desperately. Hayes, seeing his intended victim getting away, stabbed the warden several times in the shoulder and the groin.

Although bleeding terribly, Conley managed to draw a revolver and fired four times, with the weapon pressed "against Hayes' abdomen. As Hayes sank to the floor, Rock rushed at Conley, who fired the remaining bullet into Rock, and the latter fell, helpless.

The third convict, took to his heels at the beginning of the throat cutting, but he was quickly captured.

Killed in the Courtroom.

W. F. Holland and his son, Walter Holland, are both dead, and J. W. Turner, fatally injured as the result of a fight in Justice W. F. Braxton's court in Decatur, Ala., Saturday.

Bob and John Turner, sons of J. W. Turner, who were also engaged in the fight, but who were unharmed, made their escape, but officers are on their trail.

All the parties concerned are prominent country people. The fight grew out of an old family feud. Some years ago W. F. Holland mortgaged some farm lands to Kirk Wallace, of Moulton. Mr. Wallace foreclosed the mortgage and the property was bought by J. W. Turner. Holland remained in possession of the property for some time after the foreclosure of the mortgage, and had feeling grew up between the Hollands and the Turners which resulted in many quarrels and fights.

A few days ago the Hollands accused the Turners of cutting the r wire fence, and the Turners were arrested. On Saturday they appeared in court and were acquitted. After the trial, but while they were still in the courtroom, Walter Holland told J. W. Turner he swore to a lie, and drew his revolver from his hip pocket. Turner's sons, Bob and John, rushed toward Walter Holland with drawn knives, and with one blow in the heart Holland fell dead.

Walter Holland's father had rushed to his assistance, and he likewise met death by being stabbed by the Turner boys. J. W. Turner was beaten over the head with a pistol, and will die.

There was a panic in the courtroom, and in the rush for the doors several men and boys were caught in the jam and badly bruised. Officers were unable to stop the fight or prevent the slaying.

On account of his serious condition J. W. Turner has not been placed under arrest, as it is believed he will die.

The Turners are closely related to the Hatfields, the famous feudists of Kentucky.

The Hollands came from a noted family of mountaineers. Each side has sworn not to stop until the last one of the opposing family is killed.
